

2009 BARBARA SILVERMAN MEMORIAL FREESTYLE CIRCUIT

Purpose:

To honor former VADA member Barbara Silverman; to promote the musical freestyles she loved; to support funding of the Woman's Ovarian Cancer Foundation

The Circuit:

- Two scores from any USEF licensed competition in a freestyle class.
- Must compete in the freestyle finals at the 2009 GAIG's (which will count as third score)
- Three scores for each horse/rider combination will be used for the mean score.
- First through sixth place will be awarded in each of 2 categories: First–Fourth level and FEI Level.
- Ribbons will be awarded at the 2009 GAIG's in Lexington, VA on Sunday, October 25, 2009. Winners are expected to participate in the mounted awards ceremony.

Nominating Fee:

- Each rider will pay $40.00 to nominate themselves for this circuit. $10.00 of each nominating fee will be given to the Foundation.
- No refunds for this fee
- Nominating fees need to accompany the GAIG/Open Show Entry.

Awards:

- Prize money will be awarded for first place in each category. Prize money will be based on total number of entries, with $20 per entry set aside to be paid to the winner of the class.
- Ribbons will be awarded first through sixth place in a mounted awards ceremony.
